An “Accessory Dwelling Unit” means a second dwelling unit either attached to or located on a lot occupied by a single-family detached dwelling. An ADU provides a separate and completely independent dwelling unit with facilities for cooking, sanitation and sleeping and has a separate and independent entry/exit other than the one utilized for the primary residence. An ADU shall not exceed 50% of the size of the primary dwelling on the lot or 800 square feet, whichever is less. “Owner Occupancy” means a property owner, as reflected in the real estate tax rolls, who makes his or her legal residence at the subject lot, as evidenced by voter registration, vehicle registration, or similar means, and actually resides upon the lot more than six months out of any given year.

Notice of Accessory Dwelling Unit Permit

Permit #: ___________________
Abbreviated Legal Description:

________________________________________________________________________

Parcel #: ___________________

Notice is hereby given that on ________________ the City of Black Diamond approved the use of an Accessory Dwelling Unit to the owner, ______________________________________, for the property located at ______________________________________, Black Diamond, Washington

A copy of this permit approval is attached hereto as Exhibit “A”.

An owner of the property must occupy at least one dwelling unit located on the property. (BDMC 18.56.030 (E)).

This certification will remain in effect until I or a new property owner record a certification with the King County Office of Records and Elections that the use of the property for an accessory dwelling unit has been discontinued.

When the property is sold I will notify the property owner(s) of the requirements of BDMC 18.56

I am aware that in the event there is a violation of any of the conditions of approval of the permit for the accessory dwelling unit, the Owner is to provide for the removal of all improvements added to convert the premises to an accessory dwelling unit and provide for complete restoration of the site to a single family dwelling
